Itinerary

Day 1

Umbwe Gate to Umbwe Camp

Meals: Dinner

Drive to Umbwe Gate for registration, then hike through rainforest on a steep, direct trail to Umbwe Camp. A tough first day with a true wilderness feel.

Day 2

Umbwe Camp to Barranco Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Continue climbing and then traverse to Barranco Camp where the route joins the southern circuit. Enjoy huge views and a better acclimatization setting.

Day 3

Barranco Camp to Karanga Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Climb the Barranco Wall and continue across ridges and valleys to Karanga Camp. This is a strong trekking day with great scenery.

Day 4

Karanga Camp to Barafu Camp (Summit Prep)

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Hike to Barafu Camp, your base for the summit. Rest, eat well, and prepare for the midnight summit attempt.

Day 5

Barafu Camp to Uhuru Peak to Mweka Camp

Meals: Breakfast

Start before midnight and climb to Stella Point, then continue to Uhuru Peak for sunrise. After photos, descend to Mweka Camp for a well-earned rest.

Day 6

Mweka Camp to Mweka Gate - Return to Moshi

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Descend through rainforest to Mweka Gate for certificates. Transfer back to Moshi for a shower, celebration, and rest.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is Umbwe Route best for?

Umbwe is best for strong, experienced hikers who want a tougher trek and understand the demands of fast altitude gain.

Is Umbwe the hardest route?

It is one of the steepest and most challenging starts. Altitude is the main difficulty, and this route has less time to acclimatize.

Do we camp on this route?

Yes. Umbwe is a camping route with tents set up by the crew.

Can you help with gear rental?

Yes. We can arrange quality gear rental in Moshi if you need items like sleeping bags, jackets, or trekking poles.
